School mission:

With God's love and the Core Values of Catholic Education, to provide quality early childhood education and child care service to children aged 2-6, and to promote the Truth, Love, Righteousness, Freedom and Peace with God's love.

Nurturing Objective:

To advocate the concept of learning through play and initiate child-centered learning in order to foster the balanced and full development of young children in social, intellectual, physical, moral, spiritual and aesthetic aspects, as well as the noble characters for a whole person.

Curriculum Characteristics:

Moral Education

We emphasize the emotional and social development of children. We organize “Children Month” and “Love and Care Campaign” annually in order to cultivate children to embody the Love of Christ and to thank His Grace, to learn to love and to respect others, to express appreciation and to demonstrate caring for others in daily life.

Encourage exploration and creative thinking

We emphasize on various learning approaches, including Integrated approach and Project Learning, to cultivate young children to learn actively themselves through real life experience in accordance to their abilities and interests, and fostering young children's initiatives in learning, good living habits, self-confidence, abilities in self-discipline and self-care.

Whole Language Learning

We adopt Whole Language Approach to create a rich language environment according to the age, abilities and needs of children. Besides, a variety of language learning activities is organized to enhance the comprehensive and expressive abilities of children,

Home School Collaboration

There are various ways to strengthening the relationship between parents and schools, including class visit, parent education seminars. Also, Parent-teacher Association (PTA) has been established. The members of PTA and parent volunteers are welcome to participate in planning and leading children activities at school.

Teaching Team

We have an professionally qualified teaching team. We regularly hold exchanges activities to improve teaching quality.
